Branch 164 held its annual Veterans Dinner September 17 in the hall. Guests were piped in by Piper Al Buchanan. Veterans and guests were treated to a wonderful address by Cadet Cody Lincoln, RCACS 249 Beausejour in which he recounted his experiences on a trip to European war memorials. Cody's passionate, thoughtful and poignant delivery touched everyone. Everyone enjoyed the excellent dinner cooked and served by the Ladies Auxiliary. Thank you to Comrade Lovey McTavish for the hall set up and table decorations – beautiful. Also thanks to the cadets for helping to clear the tables.

*Lieutenant Myles Drynan, RCACS 249 Beausejour will make a brief presentation at the beginning of the General Meeting on the cadets` Lac du Bonnet Flags of Remembrance Project. Flags of Remembrance pays tribute to the men and women of our Armed Forces in a visually stunning display of patriotism.
